Sport England leads the development of sport in England by influencing and serving the public, private and voluntary sectors, directed by the government’s Sports Strategy Sporting Future for All. Active Communities is the Sport England programme which aims to provide more opportunities for people to take part in sport and more places for people to play sport in their communities. It is a framework comprising services, products and sources of funding provided by Sport England, often in partnership with other agencies.

The website provides a comprehensive overview of all Sport England policies, programmes and initiatives under Active Schools, Active Sports and Active Communities and also has links to information on specific topics on the website. This can be accessed via the ‘Site topics A-Z’ link on the home page. Links to details of Sport England publications or information resources are included for topics that are not covered on the website itself. The site also includes access to ‘Sports gateway’, a searchable database of sporting contacts that helps individuals to make contact with sports organisations in their area. It can also provide more information on sports-related topics.
